Mission Statement

IQOU Theological College revolutionizes the delivery of traditional Islamic knowledge using a dynamic approach which is holistic and progressive. Through an amalgamation of hybrid courses and experiential learning, we ensure that students emerge as well rounded, Islamically grounded, productive members of society, ready to conquer the challenges of an ever-changing world.

Conferral of Degrees

IQOU Theological College is a religious institution exempt from state regulation and oversight in the Commonwealth of Virginia. IQOU Theological College confers degrees under a religious exemption through the State Council of Higher Education (SCHEV) according to the code of Virginia, Section 23-266 A-2. (Addendum, July 14th, 2021)

Philosophy of Education

The prophetic tradition which teaches that “actions are judged by results,” guides our philosophy of education; knowledge is beneficial when it leads to productive actions, as it is a means to achieving one’s goal, not the goal itself.

Knowledge should propel one to reach their highest potential, achieving success in both this life and the Hereafter, and strengthening one’s spiritual, mental, and physical aptitude.

We pride ourselves in adopting the tradition of the Holy Last Messenger, Peace Be Upon Him (pbuh) which teaches that, “It is incumbent on every man, woman and child to seek knowledge from the cradle to the grave,”. The Holy Last Messenger (pbuh) often supplicated:

“O Allah, I seek refuge in You from knowledge which does not benefit, from a heart that does not entertain the fear of Allah, from a soul that is not satisfied and the supplication that is not answered.”

This suggests that knowledge which does not benefit, is of no use.

He (pbuh) also prayed:

“O Allah, benefit me from that which You taught me, and teach me that which will benefit me, and increase me in knowledge.”

In this prayer, the Holy Last Messenger (pbuh) prays firstly to receive benefit from the knowledge he had already been given, secondly, he prays for acquisition of beneficial knowledge, and lastly, he prays for an increase in such knowledge. This indicates that useful knowledge is superior to a plethora of knowledge which does not bring about benefit for the one who has acquired it or for those around him. It is better to have a humble amount of useful knowledge which brings benefit, than to have an enormous amount of knowledge which is not applied.

Purpose

IQOU Theological College aims to revive all aspects of the Noble Traditions of the Holy Last Messenger (pbuh) and rich Islamic Heritage regarding the acquisition of useful knowledge which affects productive actions leading to the achievement of goals that are beneficial in this life and the Hereafter. Centering the student in knowledge of faith and spirituality that results in individuals living dynamic and healthy lives, is at the core of our vision. To achieve this, we approach the acquisition of knowledge using what we call, the IQOU Way.

The acquisition of knowledge can be undertaken by three means:

- Studying under the tutelage of one who knows
- Direct acquisition through experience and involvement
- Undergoing self-study using thorough research to comprehend and synthesize what is taught by an instructor

The IQOU Way offers a unique and trailblazing approach to acquiring knowledge by combining all three means of knowledge acquisition into a dynamic amalgamation, setting it apart from educational institutions as we know them.

Our distinctive approach to learning provides a unique environment for our students to excel, which includes:

- Independent studies
- Hybrid course delivery
- Interfaith dialogue opportunities
- Seminars and workshops
- Social events for community education
- Islamic culture immersion
- Experiential learning

Experiential Learning

The IQOU Way ensures that students spend time in self-study, didactic and online instruction, and direct acquisition through experiential learning. This is delivered through vast national and international networking as part of each of our educational programs. National and international study tours, virtual tours, tutoring, professional shadowing, academic counseling, global professional mentorships, hands-on training, and networking are the strategies which will be implemented.

IQOU Theological College facilitates local tours to Islamic events, Muslim organizations, masjids, and cultural centers where students have first-hand interaction with faith adherents and Islamic culture.

IQOU Theological College facilitates annual international tours to Mali, Egypt, Turkiye and Pakistan. These study tours provide students the ability to explore firsthand, Islamic historical heritage sites, learn directly under the tutelage of Sufi Masters, and submerge themselves in an environment where their previous religious studies come to life. Students are encouraged to participate in activities that promote character building through adventure. These opportunities include but are not limited to, hiking in the Himalayan Mountains, visiting Al Azhar in Cairo, one of the oldest Islamic universities in the world, and visiting Djinguereber Mosque, an ancient Islamic learning center located in Timbuktu.

Facilities

Our facilities include an 18,000 square foot building nestled in Charlotte Court House, Virginia. The grounds include access to cafeteria services, soccer fields, tennis courts and an IQOU Theological College bookstore. The location has access to high-speed internet enabling the college to utilize smart technology and to build a strong information technology infrastructure with state-of-the-art hardware and software that benefits students, faculty and staff. In addition to our onsite facilities, we offer online courses and hybrid learning opportunities.

Administration faculty and staff

We have on board a dynamic line-up of Islamic scholars and professionals. Each department is supervised by highly qualified and experienced faculty, who have achieved recognition in their fields of Arabic, Qur'anic Sciences, Hadith Sciences, Islamic History, and Sufic Sciences. Our staff includes graduates of the famous Al-Azhar University in Cairo, Egypt, the oldest degree-granting institution in the world and the most influential and prestigious seat of learning for Islamic education.

Learning Resources

IQOU Theological College offers a resource center consisting of textbooks and periodicals providing information in the various Islamic fields offered by the institution. The resource center provides students with access to current publications as well as rare historical texts.

Admissions

IQOU Theological College is committed to a diverse student body whereby seekers of knowledge, those who desire an understanding of the purpose of life, Islamic scholars and curious theologians can merge to undertake study of the great Abrahamic faith of Islam.

Applicants must:

Educational Delivery Methods

- Asynchronous Online: 100% online, accessible 24/7/365 days.
- Synchronous Online: 100% online, but with live instructor-led sessions.
- Classroom-based: Students primarily attend in a traditional physical classroom space.
- Hybrid: Mixture of online and classroom-based delivery

Senior Citizen Class Auditing

IQOU Theological College offers class auditing to students age 60 and over at a reduced tuition rate. See Appendix for tuition & fee schedule. Class auditing allows a student to enroll in a course section to experience lectures without completing assignments, receiving a grade, academic credit, continuing education unit, or a certificate of completion.

- Audit students must provide proof of age through a state identification card, driver's license or other government-issued identification.
- Audit students must submit an application, pay the application fee and complete the registration process for courses.
- Space is limited for class auditing. The College has the right to deny a class registration based on matriculated student enrollment.
- Senior citizen class auditing is limited to 6 credits per term.
- Some courses may not be available for auditing if prerequisites have not been met. (For instance, an individual may not audit Arabic II until Arabic I has been completed)
- If needed, audit students are required to pay for course materials and books.
- Audit students may matriculate into full-time degree seeking students by contacting the Dean of Academic Affairs. Audit courses cannot be changed once enrolled in the course.
- Audit students will not receive an IQOU Theological College college email.
- Audit students must follow the IQOU Theological College Code of Student Conduct.

Tuition & Payment Policy

IQOU Theological College does not participate in U.S. federal or state student aid programs. At the college's discretion, installment payments may be arranged. Students assume the responsibility for payment of the tuition costs in full. No interest is charged. All financial arrangements must be made before the first day of classes. The school will contact students who are delinquent in paying tuition and fees. Students are encouraged to seek scholarships through Lighthouse Scholarship Foundation and loans through local community resources. IQOU Theological College accepts payment for tuition, books, equipment and other fees through cash payment, credit/debit card or check.

See Appendix for Tuition & Fee Schedule

Cancellation and Refund Policy

IQOU Theological College cancellation and refund policy complies with all state and federal agency requirements.

1. Rejection of Applicant: If an applicant is rejected for enrollment, a full refund of all monies will be paid to the applicant, excluding the non-refundable application fee.
2. Three-Day Cancellation: An applicant who never attended class but provides written notice of cancellation within three business days, excluding weekends and holidays, of executing the enrollment agreement is entitled to a refund of all monies paid within 45 calendar days excluding the non-refundable application fee.
3. Cancellation Up to 7 Days: An applicant who receives instructional hours and after three or more business days of executing the enrollment agreement, submits a cancellation of enrollment form is subject to the refund policy as outlined.
4. Program Cancellation: If IQOU Theological College cancels a program after execution of an enrollment agreement by a student, IQOU Theological College will refund all monies paid by the student.

Refund Policy

Tuition refunds will be determined as follows:

Proportion of Program taught by Drop Date	Tuition Refund
Up to 12.5%	Full refund
13% or more	No refund

Withdrawal Procedure

1. A student choosing to withdraw from the school after the start of classes is to provide a written notice. The notice must include the expected last date of attendance and be signed and dated by the student. The written notice may be submitted in person, by mail or by electronic transmission. The withdrawal date will be the student's last date of attendance.
2. If special circumstances arise, a student may request in writing, a leave of absence. The student's request should include the dates the student anticipates the leave will begin and expected return date.

3. A student will be determined to be withdrawn from the institution if the student misses 7 consecutive instructional days and all the days are unexcused.
4. All withdrawals must be submitted within the determined date of the withdrawal period in accordance with the academic calendar.
5. Approval of the withdrawal will allow the student to re-register and continue in the program on a date no later than the beginning of the start of the next class.
6. A student granted readmission is subject to the tuition rate and fees at the time of re-entry.
7. A student's last date of attendance is the last day a student had academically related activity, which may include projects, field experience, or examinations. The last date of attendance is the date that the institution has determined that a student is no longer in school.

Transfer of Credits

Due to our unique programs, IQOU Theological College does not accept credits from other institutions.

The transferability and acceptance of credits you earn at IQOU Theological College is at the complete discretion of the institution to which you may seek to transfer. A student will need to contact the school to determine if the credits will transfer. If the credits that you earn at IQOU Theological College are not accepted at the institution to which you seek to transfer, you may be required to repeat some or all of your coursework at that institution.

Attendance Policies

Students must maintain 80% cumulative attendance to meet the requirements of a course. Attendance is a vital component of a student's success. Students are expected to participate in courses, and lecture sessions through regular attendance. It is further expected that every student will be present on time and prepared to participate when scheduled class sessions begin.

Student attendance is recorded daily in the attendance log by the instructor in an electronic system for all students.

Students with absences over 15% of the total hours for each course will be required to attend a mandatory meeting with their advisor.

- ✓ The instructor will take attendance electronically daily.
- ✓ If an absence from a class or lab experience is anticipated, the students are responsible for notifying the instructor via email.

- ✓ School holidays, breaks and class cancellations (i.e. due to inclement weather) are not included in calculations for class attendance, and are therefore not considered as hours of absence.
- ✓ Excessive absences, including leaving early or arriving late, may result in an instructor assigning a grade of “failure due to absence”. An accumulation of three (3) tardies will convert into one absence. Arriving 15 minutes after your scheduled class start time is considered tardy (late). Leaving 15 minutes early before your scheduled class end time will be recorded as early departure.
- ✓ If administration deems a student’s absence excused, the students will be allowed to make up scheduled exams.
- ✓ For any absence from class, or field experiences, it is the student’s responsibility to initiate a meeting with the appropriate instructor, so a plan for meeting the requirements for the course can be met. The instructor establishes expectations and the deadline for makeup work. All assigned work for each course must be completed to pass the course.
- ✓ For classroom absence, the student is responsible for getting all missed notes, assignments, or handouts. Classroom make-up time will include, but is not limited to essay assignments, special projects, computer lab, seminars, and/or educational in-services.
- ✓ IQOU Theological College reserves the right to determine if an absence is excused or unexcused. Excused absences will include but are not limited to death of immediate family (spouse, child, parent and/or sibling), illness of students, childbirth by student or spouse, jury duty, and accidents to the student. Students must submit to the administration appropriate, supporting documents or proof of absences upon return to classes.
- ✓ Elective surgeries, doctor’s appointments and/or treatments DO NOT constitute an emergency.
- ✓ Excused absences will not count as absences in the calculation of attendance rates and will not increase the maximum number of allowable absences.
- ✓ The student is responsible for communicating with course faculty in the case of any absence. The faculty may request documentation to verify the need for an absence (e.g., court letter, doctor’s note, immigration letter, military appointment, etc.). The student is responsible for the consequences of the absence.
- ✓ It is expected that the student will take examinations as scheduled in the syllabus and that assignments will be submitted on the date indicated in the syllabus. It is at the discretion of course faculty members to decide if extraordinary circumstances presented by the student will merit any exceptions to this policy.

Satisfactory Academic Progress Standards

Satisfactory progress in a course is defined as maintaining a 1.7 grade point average measured by passing examinations, timely completion of assignments, and acceptable performance of required skills. Satisfactory progress in a degree program is defined as maintaining an overall 2.0 grade point average.

Grading System

The grading system outlined below is used for all courses. Only letter grades are posted to the student's official school transcript.

Letter Grade	Minimum %	GPA Value
A+	97%	4.0
A	93%	3.8
A-	90%	3.7
B+	87%	3.3
B	83%	3.0
B-	80%	2.7
C+	77%	2.3
C	73%	2.0
C-	70%	1.7
D+	67%	1.3
D	65%	1.0
F	<65%	0.0
“W”	Withdrawal	N/A
“I”	Incomplete	N/A

Withdrawals and Incomplete Grades

Course withdrawal by the withdrawal date will not affect a student's grade point average (GPA).

At the end of the term, students may be given an "I" (Incomplete) and granted a maximum extension not exceeding the end of the next session to complete the course requirements. Incomplete grades will not affect the student's GPA, until a final grade is assigned. If the student does not complete the course requirements within the extension period, he/she will receive a zero grade for incomplete assignments and the instructor will compute the final grade accordingly.

Student Inquiries

Faculty and staff are expected to respond to student inquiries in a timely manner. The method of response (i.e. phone, email, etc.) is left to the discretion of the faculty or staff member as deemed appropriate. However, as a standard, inquiries should be responded to within 48 hours.

Academic probation

If a student fails to meet satisfactory academic progress standards, he/she will be placed on academic probation for the next session. Students must meet the satisfactory academic progress standards by the end of the probationary period in order to remain in the program. If the student fails to meet the satisfactory academic progress standards by the end of the probationary period, the student will be terminated from IQOU Theological College.

Repeat Courses

A student who fails a course will be required to repeat it. The grade received on the repeated course replaces any other grade for that course in the calculation of the GPA. All final course grades will be recorded and appear on the student's transcript. Make-up work may be required for any absence.

Accommodations for disabilities

IQOU Theological College is committed to accommodating the needs and abilities of all students by removing barriers to learning in order for students to equally access, use, and understand learning content. With this in mind, faculty considers and creates course materials that are accessible by a wide range of learners. If accommodation is needed due to a disability, please discuss with the instructor in private, if comfortable, or contact the Dean for a determination of available services. IQOU Theological College maintains student privacy concerning any accommodations.

Graduation Requirements

Upon successful completion of a program a student will earn a Certificate or Diploma of Completion provided the student meets all the following conditions:

- Complete each course with a grade point average (GPA) of at least 1.7.
- Complete program of study with an overall GPA of at least 2.0.
- Meet all applicable attendance, Hifz requirements and study tours.
- Complete application to graduate.

Student Honor Code: Conduct

IQOU Theological College is substantially controlled and supported by a body fulfilling Islamic values and traditions. Our organization is a community of believers who have created a college to meet the academic and spiritual needs of society. As such, our expectation is that the student willingly agrees to the standards of behavior outlined in this policy which are not exhaustive but provide guidance.

Students are expected to comply with school policy regarding curriculum, testing, absences, tardiness, and makeup work while displaying courtesy and consideration towards instructors, staff, and other students. IQOU Theological College defines improper conduct as follows: cursing and/or yelling at fellow students or staff; fighting on campus; destruction, abuse, or theft of property; the use or sale of alcohol or illegal drugs on campus or at an externship site; sexual misconduct; and disregard for school policy. Improper conduct is a cause for suspension or expulsion. Violations of the IQOU Theological College standard of conduct could result in disciplinary action up to and including termination. Accordingly, students must:

- Respect students' property and resources and protect the college reputation.
- Take personal responsibility and be accountable for their actions.
- Protect the privacy of students, faculty, staff, donors, and any others who entrust their confidential, privileged, or proprietary information to IQOU Theological College, using the information only for the purposes it was provided.
- Give due regard and respect to the college's authority structure, discipline policies, and all procedures.
- Avoid the appearance of impropriety and conflicts of interest.
- Always act honestly, fairly, and in good faith.

- Social media platforms must not be utilized to criticize or defame the college or its staff/students or break the student honor code.

IQOU Theological College Ethics Statement

At IQOU Theological College, we hold the values of respect, intellectual integrity, and a deep commitment to the pursuit of knowledge in the highest regard. As an Islamic institution dedicated to the holistic development of our students' faith, character, and academic mastery, it is imperative that we foster an environment of mutual respect and courtesy grounded in our Islamic foundation. We require all students, faculty and staff to embrace, respect and actively engage in upholding our institution's Islamic principles not only in their academic interactions, but also in their personal lives. It is through this collective commitment to our religious values and ethics that we can truly foster an environment of love, compassion, and spiritual growth.

We encourage open dialogue and critical thinking, which are integral components of an education at IQOU Theological College. However, it is crucial to remember that criticism of the Holy Quran, the Canonical books of the Sunnah of the Holy Last Messenger (peace be upon him), Islamic scholars, and other religious materials or media is not permitted. Disagreements and differing perspectives are welcome in other academic areas, but when it comes to the sacred texts and materials that form the foundation of Islamic ideology, they should be approached with reverence and deference. Disparaging comments or actions directed towards any facet of our academic community, including the sharing of college content or disrespectful posts on social media towards these Divine materials are contrary to the standards we uphold and therefore strictly prohibited. Additionally, we want to emphasize that disrespect towards our esteemed faculty, staff, authors, curriculum, and the sources used in our instruction is not in alignment with our mission and principles.

We believe in responsible freedoms of speech that are consistent with our Islamic standards and values. By adapting and embracing these standards, you contribute to the creation of a campus atmosphere most conducive to the Islamic community of living, learning, and service that IQOU Theological College aspires to be. Your commitment to upholding our religious and ethical standards not only enriches your own spiritual growth but also creates a harmonious environment where all members of our community can flourish in both their academic and spiritual pursuits.

Adherence to these guidelines is of the utmost importance in maintaining the integrity and sanctity of our college community. Failure to follow Islamic principles, as well as these guidelines, including any disrespectful actions towards students, faculty, staff, authors, curriculum, and Divine materials, as well as the irresponsible use of social media, may result in disciplinary action after review by the IQOU Theological College Ethics Board. Upon review, and depending on the severity of the violation, these consequences may range from warnings and counseling to more serious measures, including suspension, expulsion or termination from the college. We trust that all members of our community will uphold these standards with the utmost care and consideration, fostering an environment that aligns with our commitment to spiritual growth, academic excellence and mutual respect.

Student Honor Code: Dress

IQOU Theological College prides itself in implementing a respectable moral code of conduct and dress in accordance with Islamic values and ethics. This code is derived from the Quranic injunction below which shapes the upstanding ideals for men and women based on faith, honesty, empathy and discipline.

“Indeed, for the men who submit to the Divine Will and women who submit to the Divine Will, the believing men and believing women, the obedient men and obedient women, the truthful men and truthful women, the patient men and patient women, the humble men and humble women, the charitable men and charitable women, the fasting men and fasting women, the men who guard their modesty and the women who guard their modesty, and the men who remember Almighty Allah often and the women who remember Almighty Allah often - for them, The Almighty has prepared forgiveness and a great reward.”
(Holy Quran, 33:35)

Tell the believing men to lower their gaze and be modest. That is purer for them. Lo! Almighty Allah is aware of what they do. And tell the believing women to lower their gaze and be modest, and to display of their adornment only that which is (naturally) apparent, and to draw their veils over their bosoms, and not to reveal their adornment save to their own husbands or fathers or husbands' fathers, or their sons or their husbands' sons, or their brothers or their brothers' sons or sisters' sons, or their women, or their attendants, or male attendants who lack vigor, or children who know naught of women's adornments. And let them not stamp their feet so as to reveal what they hide of their adornment. And turn unto Almighty together, O believers, in order that ye may succeed. (Holy Quran, 24:30-31)

Guidelines for Men’s Dress:

Men must wear tunics reaching between the hip and knees in length with loose-fitting pants. Shorts must not be worn. Head cover is to be worn but bandanas and hoodies are not allowed. Do not wear bright neon colors, such as bright red, orange, yellow, etc. Maintain and groom hair and beards. Hair should not fall below shoulder length nor be maintained in tight twists or braids. Business casual attire is encouraged. No form fitting pants, leggings, or skinnies are allowed. Neckties are not to be worn. Absolutely no piercings or tattoos. Pre-existing tattoos should be covered.

Guidelines for Women's Dress:

Women should wear a loose-fitting topcoat below the knee with loose-fitting trousers or skirt with headscarf covering hair, ears, neck and bosom. Proper clothing must be worn under a topcoat. Modest maxi, kaftan or dress is acceptable. Face veil should not be observed. Form fitting pants, leggings, or skinnies are not to be worn. Do not wear bright neon colors, such as bright red, orange, yellow, etc. No loud Make-up or jewelry. No tattoos or face piercings except for one nose piercing that is in accordance with Islamic guidelines.

Student Honor Code: Violations

Student conduct that is dishonest and that lacks academic integrity and breaches the intellectual rights of others is prohibited. Students who have good intentions are still subject to the rules of the student honor code of the college. The list below will outline the prohibited behaviors:

- Bribery – In efforts to obtain academic gain, bribing or attempting to bribe faculty or staff is prohibited.
- Cheating – Receiving, providing, using or attempting to use information or learning materials by any means or modes before, during or after exams or quizzes is cheating. Express permission by the professor must be in writing to authorize any accommodations during exams or quizzes. Cheating may also include:
 - Replicating an answer from another person's exams
 - Use of prohibited signals and/or codes
 - Use of prohibited electronic devices
 - Sharing of tests or quizzes without permission from the professor
- Facilitating Academic Dishonesty – Intentionally helping or attempting to help another to commit an act of academic dishonesty, instances of which will include:
 - Submitting the same work from another class without the professor's permission
 - Giving parts or all answers from an exam to another student that the professor has not released and stolen exams
 - Changing grades on transcripts, grade sheets, electronic data sheets, academic reports, exams, projects and on any other official college documents
 - Replicating copyrighted material without expressed permission from the author
- Lying – Giving intentionally false information to professors to gain academically:
 - attempting to deceive professors to reschedule tests or assignments
 - lying about absences

- lying about one's own involvement in plagiarism or cheating; lying about another student's involvement in plagiarism or cheating
- Plagiarism – Includes presenting as one's work or the work of someone else without properly acknowledging the source. Plagiarism is theft – using words and ideas of another person as if they were one's own. Exact copying should be enclosed in quotation marks and be appropriately documented in footnotes or endnotes that indicate the source of the quotation. Paraphrasing when the basic sentence structure and word choice remain the same is also plagiarism. When in doubt about these matters, it is the student's responsibility to seek guidance from the instructor of the course. Students should also consult the college-wide guidelines on plagiarism. It is the student's responsibility to utilize standard citation styles when citing work which is not their own.
- Using False Citations – False citation occurs when a student gives credit for an idea or information (any intellectual property) to an incorrect or made-up source with the intention to deceive. False attribution seriously damages the integrity of academic work by breaking a chain of ideas, which should be traceable link by link.
- Vandalism – The intentional damage of intellectual property belonging to others, instances of which will include, but are not limited to:
 - hiding or damaging any course material
 - breaking and entering for the purposes of academic dishonesty

Classroom Expectations

Students are expected to actively engage in course activities and discussions during synchronous classes and asynchronous learning activities. In all classroom interactions, please be respectful of the instructor and your fellow classmates. Students should be punctual and come to class prepared.

Dress

In the virtual environment, students are still expected to come to class appropriately dressed, which prepares you as a learner to receive the knowledge. Additionally, since IQOU Theological College courses are delivered and received via webcam, appropriate dress guards against mishaps and ensures that recordings maintain the best of professionalism. .

Camera use

Camera use in synchronous classroom sessions can foster a sense of community and connection which leads to more engaging discussions. Turn cameras on during course discussions and activities. Turn your video off when you need a quick break, your background may be momentarily distracting, or you encounter connection issues. Take a moment to inform the instructor via direct chat so they'll know you are, or are not, still participating without the camera in use.

Background

Consider utilizing a virtual background for your privacy and to limit distractions during synchronous sessions. Recommended virtual backgrounds can be found in Populi under Files.

Audio

Unmute your microphone to answer questions and engage in class discussions. Mute your microphone when you are not speaking to reduce background noise. Consider using a headset or headphones with a microphone to improve audio quality. When possible, try to connect in a quiet, distraction-free place.

Chat

Use the chat window for questions and comments that are relevant to the class in session.

Session Recordings

Refrain from sharing class session recordings with individuals not currently enrolled in this course section. Unauthorized student recording of classroom activities is prohibited. To request the use of assistive technology for an accommodation, direct such requests to the Dean of Academic Affairs.

Liability

The school reserves the right to postpone training in the event of an Act of Allah, labor disputes, equipment failure, etc. Students will be duly notified. All course schedules are subject to change in terms of start and completion date. Students will be notified and offered the opportunity to consent as provided by law. In cases where such change would cause undue hardship, a refund will be offered. The maximum postponement of a class start date is 90 days. IQOU Theological College reserves the right to withdraw a scheduled course if the registration is insufficient to warrant holding the class. All monies paid will be refunded.

IQOU Theological College assumes no responsibility for loss or damage to personal property, or for personal injury, which may occur while on the school grounds or during study tours.

Retention of Records

IQOU Theological College will maintain student records for five years, as required by state law. Student transcripts will be maintained indefinitely. Students have a right to access their records anytime that the institution is open and during normal business hours. Students desiring to view their records may request to see their records in the school office during normal business hours or may schedule a time to review records that is convenient to both the student and the school administration. Student academic records and transcripts of completed courses for IQOU Theological College are electronically maintained. Hard copies are maintained in the student's file.

Transcripts

A copy of the academic transcript is available upon request by the student with payment of a processing fee (see section on Tuition and Fee Schedule). This service is subject to the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974, as amended. The College reserves the right to withhold an official transcript, if the student's financial obligation to the College is in arrears, or if the student is in arrears on any Federal or State student loan obligation. The College also reserves the right to limit within its discretion the number of official transcripts provided without a processing fee. Certificates and official transcripts of records are available within fifteen (15) days from the receipt of a written request. All records and documentation required by the Reform Act of 1989 will be maintained at the main administrative office for a minimum period of five years. Thereafter, all official student transcript records will contain the names of all programs into which students have enrolled, the names of all courses attempted, whether completed, the academic grade earned, the year and quarter, and the number of units of credit earned and will be maintained indefinitely. Transcripts will be provided to students upon written request.

Student Grievance Procedure

This institution is dedicated to the fair treatment of, and professional conduct with students. Should any student have a complaint, the student is asked to discuss the matter directly with an instructor or administrator. That instructor or administrator will engage in an informal process to settle the dispute in good faith. That informal process will involve three steps:

- 1) An effort to define the problem
- 2) An effort to identify acceptable options for resolution; and
- 3) An attempt to resolve the conflict through the application of one or more of those options for resolution

The student may thereafter choose to file a written complaint directly with the school administration who will work to resolve the matter. The school administration will investigate all formal (written) complaints, attempt to resolve all such complaints, and record an entry into the institution's official log. The formal process will require the student's submission of a written description of the specific allegations and the desired remedy, accompanied by any available documentation. The school administration will notify the student of the decision reached.
